

LOWER SCHOOL MUSIC TEACHER SEARCH

START DATE: 2026-2027 SCHOOL YEAR

POSITION OVERVIEW

HACKLEY SCHOOL seeks a dynamic, highly experienced, and collaborative Lower School Music Teacher to teach general and vocal music to Grades 2 through 4. The teacher will plan and lead engaging grade-level performances, serve as a pianist for rehearsals and performances, and collaborate across curriculum and grade levels to support the needs of the Performing Arts Department. This role is ideal for an educator who is both an inspiring classroom teacher and an accomplished pianist dedicated to fostering creativity, collaboration and a lifelong love of music in young learners.

The Lower School Music Teacher reports to the Director of Performing Arts and the Director of the Lower School.

MISSION AND HISTORY

HACKLEY SCHOOL is a nonsectarian coeducational K-12 independent school located in Tarrytown, New York. Founded as a boarding school in 1899, Hackley enrolls approximately 860 students, including 25 five-day boarding students in grades 9-12.

Students experience joy in the classroom and make life-long connections with each other and with our dedicated faculty, 40% of whom reside on campus. Robust extracurricular programming on our 285-acre campus creates unique opportunities for each student to learn and grow beyond the boundaries of the school day. Hackley graduates have the knowledge and confidence to pursue their passions and the drive to make a difference.

Hackley challenges students to grow in character, scholarship, and accomplishment, to offer unreserved effort, and to learn from the varying perspectives and backgrounds in our community and the world.
